

Māhutonga (Southern Cross or Crux)

In navigation this constellation is used to find true south and is made up of the following 5 stars: Alpha Crucis (Acrux), Beta Crucis, Gamma Crucis, Delta Crucis & Epsilon Crucis.

Māhutonga can always be seen in the Southern Hemisphere.

Orion

The three stars that form a line in the middle of Orion, known as Tautoru or Orion's Belt, is used in navigation as it rises very close to due east and it sets due west.

Scorpius

In navigation this constellation can be used to indicate west as it floats low on the western horizon.

It is made up of the stars Tamarereti, Mairerangi, Rehua and Atutahi.

